E. Principal's Report

Thank you for dance and thank you for lost and found and lunch duty

Thank you for career day volunteers - more people responded than we had room for and that is a great thing. There will be many varieties of careers represented.

Cash to clothing was full - so thank you all for all of those that filled it up.

Schools to watch is coming up and we are coming up for re-designation. MMS is considered a school to watch with student and parent representation to assist with redesignation.

Bond referendum was passed which means new building for MMS and this will not be future site but we do not know where that will be but will let you know when we know more.

Rising 6th grade night will be Jan 25, 2023.
